(Music)

Man: We bring the future to the present.

Woman: We bring the present to the future.

(Music accelerates)

M: We bring the stars to the audience.

W: We bring the breaking news to the waiting world.

(In the background: people speaking + "reunification of Germany" heard)

M: We are SES Global [= Société européenne des satellites] and we're the world's premier satellite operator.

Our satellite network brings direct and immediate broadband coverage to practically the entire planet.

W: We deliver the TV and radio programmes of the world's leading broadcasters.

M: And we provide interactive IP [= Internet Protocol, c'est-à-dire tous les services livrés par Internet, comme la télé à la demande, qui est "interactive" puisque liée à l'utilisation d'une télécommande par le "client"], data and telecommunication services connecting homes and businesses across the globe.

(Music slows down)

W: We bring the pupil to the teacher.

M: We bring the big future to the small business.

W: we bring the big action to the small screen.

(Music accelerates again)

M: SES Global is based in Luxembourg in Europe and provides the strategic management and leadership for its operating companies worldwide.

W: These operating companies are the world's leading communications satellite operators working together to offer unparalleled reach and connectivity to their customers.

M: We bring sunshine to the cloudy day.

W: We bring beauty to the eye of the beholder.

M: We bring tomorrow's designers to today's buyers.
